DECEMBER

Passchendaele — October 17th, 2008
 During World War I, thousands of Canadians are sent to fight in the third battle of Ypres, a battle against impossible odds, commonly known as 'Passchendaele'. This is a story of passion, courage and dedication, showing the heroism of those that fought in the battle, and of those that loved them.

High School Musical 3: Senior Year — October 24th, 2008
 The original stars are back and are now in senior year! They struggle with the idea of being separated from one another as college approaches and they stage a spring musical reflecting their experiences, hopes and fears about the future. ©Disney

Madagascar Escape 2 Africa — November 7th, 2008
 The New York Zoo animals are back and are now stranded in the vast wilderness of Africa. While there the zoo-raised crew encounters species of their own kind for the very first time and quickly realize the differences between the concrete jungle and the heart of Africa.

Bolt — November 21st, 2008
 When the canine star of a hit TV show, Bolt, is accidentally shipped from his Hollywood soundstage to New York City, he begins his biggest adventure yet – a cross-country journey through the real world. With the voices of John Travolta and Miley Cyrus. ©Disney
